

Overview

Stormo ('we,' 'us,' 'our,' or 'Company') operates the Stormo.io website and the Stormo application (collectively, the 'Service'). This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, disclose, and safeguard your information when you visit our Service.

1. Information We Collect

We collect information you voluntarily provide when you sign up for Stormo, including:

Store URL and platform information, product descriptions and pricing, target customer demographics, marketing history and results, business goals and timelines, email address and account credentials.

We also collect information automatically when you use Stormo:

Usage data and feature interaction, device information, IP address and location data, cookie and tracking data.

Third-party services we use may also collect data on your behalf:

Stripe for payment processing, Claude API for AI-powered recommendations, analytics tools for user behavior tracking, email service providers.

2. How We Use Your Information

We use the information we collect to: provide and improve the Stormo Service, personalize your daily action plans, process payments and send billing information, communicate with you about your account, analyze usage patterns and optimize features, comply with legal obligations.

3. Claude API and Data Processing

Your onboarding answers and store information are sent to Claude API to generate your personalized daily action plans. By using Stormo you agree to this data being processed by Anthropic's Claude API. We recommend reviewing Anthropic's privacy policy at anthropic.com to understand how they handle data processed through the API. Your data is used solely for generating your action plan and not for training Claude models.

4. Payment Processing with Stripe

Stripe processes all payment information on your behalf. Stripe only receives payment details (card information, billing address, email). Stripe does not receive or store your store data, onboarding answers, or business information. We do not retain your full credit card details. Please review Stripe's privacy policy at stripe.com for details on how they handle payment data.

5. Data Sharing and Contractors

We do not sell your data for any monetary reason. We may share your information with: our development team and contractors (including Muhammad Ismaeel and future team members) who help build and maintain Stormo under confidentiality agreements. All contractors who access user data are required to sign non-disclosure agreements (NDAs) protecting your information. Future employees or team members who need access to provide the Service. Third-party service providers (Stripe, Claude API, analytics providers) as necessary to operate Stormo. Legal authorities if required by law.

6. Data Retention and Deletion

We retain your user data for 60 days after you delete your account. After 60 days we permanently delete your onboarding answers, store information, and usage data. Payment and tax records required by law may be retained longer for legal and financial compliance purposes. You can request deletion of your account at any time by contacting info@stormo.io.

7. Legal Requests and Compliance

If we receive a legal request (subpoena, court order, or government request) for your data, we will make reasonable efforts to notify you of the request unless legally prohibited from doing so. We will comply with valid legal requests as required by law. You have the right to challenge any legal request in court.

8. Data Security

We implement reasonable security measures to protect your data. However, no method of transmission over the internet is completely secure. We cannot guarantee absolute security of your information.

9. Your Rights

You have the right to: access the information we hold about you, request correction of inaccurate data, request deletion of your account and associated data, opt out of certain data uses. To exercise these rights, contact us at info@stormo.io.

10. Availability

Stormo is currently available to residents of the United States, Canada, Australia, United Kingdom, and New Zealand only.

11. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy periodically. We will notify you of any material changes by updating the 'Last Updated' date and posting the revised policy on our Service.
